Forecast For Highland & Eilean Siar
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Tuesday 19 Oct 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Mainly cloudy and occasionally wet day.

Today:
Rather cloudy with rain or showers, this heavy at times, particularly towards southern end of Great Glen. Best of the limited brighter spells during the morning in the east from Inverness northwards. South to southwest winds occasionally freshening across coasts. Maximum temperature 16 deg C (61 deg F).

Tonight:
Overcast skies and periods of rain clearing eastwards during evening, leaving clear spells and showers, these more frequent across western and northern districts. Southwest winds strengthening. Minimum temperature 6 deg C (43 deg F).

Wednesday:
Sunshine and showers for most during morning. Rainband edging across Lewis late morning, before extending southeast over rest of area before early evening, as the strong southwest winds veer northwest. Maximum temperature 14 deg C (57 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Cold snap Thursday, early Friday, with blustery showers, wintry over hills, and strong northerly winds. Turning drier late Friday, then milder Saturday as winds back southwest, pushing rainbands across area.
